Test Results and Interview Guide

The Painter - Construction and Maintenance (Short plus Video Interview) assessment measures key factors related to high performance and tenure in this job. Attribute types measured vary by test, but can include cognitive ability, skills, knowledge, personality characteristics, emotional intelligence, and past behavioral history. This report includes a one page summary, followed by detailed results with an embedded interview guide. Note that these results should always be used as a part of a balanced candidate selection process that includes independent evaluation steps, such as interviews and reference checks.

Assessment Overview

This assessment provides scores for a number of important factors and competencies that are related to success on the job. Scores are presented based on their potential impact on job performance.

Scores are presented individually on a scale of 0-100. In most cases, including the overall score, higher scores represent higher expected job performance. However, for some competencies, either extreme low or extreme high scores indicate a risk of lower performance. Refer to the interpretation section of each competency for additional information.

Individual competency scores are also combined into a single overall score. Please note that individual competencies are weighted differently, depending on their type, and on fine adjustments based on data from the US Government's Occupational Data Network (O*Net).

Each competency measured includes one or more suggested interview questions, in an easy-to-use format. These questions should be used for additional probing, especially when the score shows an area of relative weakness.

Some of the competencies measured evaluate preferences for doing (or not doing) specific activities. Scores for these competencies can be used to evaluate job-fit.

We wish to emphasize that the data contained in this report should be used as part of a comprehensive process for evaluating job candidates. Additional data should include in-person interviews, job tryouts, resume review, and background checks.

Detail	Interview Guide
Memory / Attention to Detail / Logic & Reasoning Score: 76  Description: This scale reflects how successful a person is at making sense of facts through logical reasoning. High scorers understand causes and consequences by interpreting a given situation and predicting its outcomes. They are able to remember details and take action accordingly. Low scorers may burn out or become paralyzed. In more stable circumstances, high scorers may become bored, while low scorers would remain satisfied. This scale also represents thoroughness, accuracy, and being concerned for all areas involved no matter how insignificant. Individuals who demonstrate high Attention to Detail produce work that is consistently accurate and require little checking. They rarely forget schedule commitments or overlook even the smallest details. Interpretation: Strong scores in this area correlate with above average performance for many jobs. Above-average scores in memory, attention to detail and logic indicate the candidate has the ability to learn quickly, recall information promptly, solve problems, and adapt to changing conditions. This usually means the candidate is likely to respond appropriately to challenging situations with little or no supervision.	Can you give me an example of where your attention to detail or your thoughtful analysis of a situation helped make a project successful?  1 Poor example. Personality Characteristics Detail

This section contains a list of personality characteristics that are frequently associated with job performance. Remember, these are not skills and do not indicate the ability to do a job. Rather, they can be used to evaluate the candidate's fit with the general needs of the job and the organizational culture. Sample interview questions are provided to gather more information.

Detail	Interview Guide
Adaptability / Flexibility Score: 66  Description: This scale reflects how accepting a person is of frequent or substantial changes in his or her job requirements and how they adjust to those changes. Changing work requirements usually causes stress and puts pressure on an individual to adapt. High scorers usually thrive under changing work conditions, while low scorers may burn out or become paralyzed. In more stable job circumstances, high scorers may become bored, while low scorers would remain satisfied. Interpretation: The candidate's score in this area should contribute to enhanced overall job performance. Prefers a dynamic environment. Able to remain focused and positive in times of significant change. Fairly easy-going and relaxed. Question	Response
Please describe something you like to do during your free time.	Hello, my name is Sandy. Something that I like to do during my free time is play music. I think it is a great escape. I think it's very relaxing. I think it helps grow your mind as you age. Uh, everyone in my family plays music. So it's a highlight of my day if I get to pick up an instrument and play as well as sing, whether that be in the car or at home. I also like to spend a lot of time with family and friends. They're very important to me. They support me a lot. So spending time with them provides me with a lot of happiness. View this video recording:
Talk about yourself. Start with your name, then add whatever you want.	Oh, goodness, where to start. There's a lot that I could say about myself. I feel what's more important to this interview is my education. Um, I had my undergraduate in psychology, just a bachelor's in science and then moving on to my master's degree. I have a master's in science, in industrial organizational psychology. Uh, a lot of my free time is spent with friends and family. I love to play sports. I love musical instruments. I love going on adventures. I love staying healthy when I can as well, both mentally and physically. And I would say that's, that's the best start to me. Oh, I also have a dog. His name is Sammy and he is an absolute sweetie. He is my life. View this video recording:
What are your biggest strengths and weaknesses?	So to start with my biggest strengths, I would say I have a lot of leadership skills. I have been in leadership positions all of my life, even from elementary school, moving all the way through college and even now in the workplace, uh I love, you know, leading others and, and having that role, I'm a very strong communicator. I believe communication is very um a lot of my peers and coworkers have, have talked about that as well that I'm very, I'm almost an over communicator not to bleed too much into the weaknesses, but I am very high on the communication side. I'm very creative. I, I have had creativity throughout my life with, with music and art. Um and that has bled into uh psychology as well. I am very good with time management. I'm very organized, it comes with the, the position as well. Uh I'm very curious, I love growing my, my learning ability as far as weaknesses. I, I could say in part that over communication could be a weakness. I notice that sometimes in emails, my emails are, are very lengthy for certain things because I feel that I have to over communicate to make sure that everything is clear to all different types of parties as well as a weakness being that I always put my health first before my job. So if necessary, if needed, I put my health and the health of my closest family members first. View this video recording:

Question	Response
How does your experience relate to the job you are applying for?	Both my job experience and my education experience relate to the job that I'm applying for. I have had over five years of job experience directly related to the same task expected on this job. And my degrees, both my bachelor's and my master's applied directly to the job that I'm applying for.   View this video recording:
Why do you think you would succeed in the job you are applying for?	I believe that I will succeed in this job because of my education and my job experience previously talked about in the last question. Um that and just my dedication to what this company stands for. I, I really do believe in this company. I think that I am a good fit for what is being asked of me. And I think that I will also be able to expand the scope of the job even further, hopefully helping the company more than it has already been helped.   View this video recording:
What would your most recent or current manager say about your performance?	My current manager would say that I have pretty high level performance more likely in the top 5% of the people in our current company. I remember in my last annual review with him, uh He mentioned that my only fault was that I was too organized, um almost intimidatingly. So, um so I believe that my manager would say that my performance is really good. Um We haven't had any issues in the past um recent managers before that would say the same. I've always gone above and beyond with my performance as doing more of what was asked of me.   View this video recording:
Talk about where you see yourself five years from now.	I plan on continue working in my field. Hopefully at a more senior level, more gained experience, more leadership responsibility, maybe even going to a few conferences, maybe speaking at conferences. I I plan to really hone in on this field and take it above and beyond. Um and hopefully be working for your company.   View this video recording:
Why is the human resources function so critical to most organizations?	Human resources is critical for many reasons. Uh It provides structured methods to address and resolve conflicts within the workplace. It creates a harmonious work environment. It maximizes employee productivity in some cases and overall, it protects the company uh with any issues that may arise within the workforce.   View this video recording:

How did you develop your human resources knowledge and how do you keep it up-to-date?	I initially developed my human resources knowledge by going to school in the fields that I went through. Um As far as keeping it up to date, I am a part of many newsletters. I keep up to date with all the laws and changes, with hiring and, and development and training, as well as attending conferences and being a part of newsletters. View this video recording:
Is there anything you want to tell the company that you haven't had a chance to say yet?	I am just very excited for this opportunity. I hope I get moved to the next step so I can get to know you all a little bit better if an assessment is given, I can't wait to take it to show you my level of skills. And um that is it. View this video recording:

Report Preparation Notes

- Hiring decisions should never be based on a single source of information. The most effective use of this assessment report is as a part of a multi-faceted program of candidate evaluation that includes resume review, interviews, and reference checks.
- Overall vs Percentiles Scores: The overall score reflects the success in the test, based on the mean (average) and standard deviation of the test scores. The percentile score reflects the percentage of test-takers who scored equal or below this overall score. We recommend you use the Overall Score as your primary evaluation criteria. However, percentile scores can often be useful in comparing specific candidates against one another and with a group, such as for test takers in a certain organization or within a certain account.
- Note that comparison information is calculated based on completed instances of this assessment at that time the assessment is scored. As additional instances are completed, the comparative data may change. You can always update a report to the current values by clicking on "Recalculate Percentiles" within the online results viewing pages at www.hravatar.com.
- Most competency scores are norm-based, which means that they can be interpreted in terms of their distance from the average or mean score. For all scales, a score equal to the mean receives a score of 65 and scores above and below this value are set so that a score change of 15 equals one standard deviation.
- For linear competencies, higher is better across the entire scale. For these scales a score between 65 and 80 (light green) represents 0 to 1 standard deviation above the mean and a score above 80 (dark green) represents more than one standard deviation above the mean. Similarly, a score of 50 - 65 (yellow) represents 0 to 1 standard deviation below the mean, while a score of 35 - 50 (orange) equates to 1 to 2 standard deviations below the mean, and a score below 35 represents more than 2 standard deviations below the mean.
- This assessment makes use of data from the Occupational Information Network (O*NET), which is funded by the U.S. Federal Government - U.S. Department of Labor/Employment and Training Administration (USDOL/ETA) - as a primary source of occupational information. The O*NET database contains information on hundreds of standardized and occupation-specific descriptors that are continually updated by ongoing research. These data are used in preparing descriptive information as well as setting relative weights between competencies used in calculating the overall score. For additional information about O*NET, visit <http://www.onetcenter.org>.

Score Calculation Detail

The following table provides a summary of how the overall score was calculated from the individual competency scores. Competency scores are calculated on a 0-100 scale by first calculating a Z statistic based on test-taker responses and then transforming the Z value to a scale with target mean and standard deviation. Certain competencies have a normal score distribution where it is best to be closest to the mean. For these competencies we modify the Z statistic by multiplying its absolute value by minus 1 for the overall score calculation. Next, to calculate the overall score, a weighted average of all modified competency Z statistics is computed and this weighted average is itself transformed to a Z statistic, which is then transformed to a score with the same target mean and standard deviation. Finally outlier scores are adjusted if they are below 0 or above 100.
